Personal Essay

On a separate piece of lined paper, write a personal essay based on the following scenario:

Let's set the stage: Imagine you have just peeled the sticker away from your McDonald's french fry container and you gotten Boardwalk, AND, you already have Park Place. It hits you like a ton of bricks that you've just won the big prize of $1,000,000.00! Now, what do you do? Your first instinct might be to buy a cool car, a bike, a new Ipod, but we're asking you to think about this a little deeper. Tell us what you'd do with the money. Be creative; think about your future, your family, and the world as we know it today. We want to see your best handwriting and your writing style. Please staple the essay to your application before submitting it along with the yellow copy of the Records Release Form and your application fee. The

The deadline for application with $45.00 fee is December 1st for the first round of acceptances.
All applications received after this date will be considered on a rolling, space available admissions basis.

Candidates are chosen based on GPA, essay, recommendations, and test scores. Students of varied religions, social and academic backgrounds are a welcomed part of the Brady community. The school provides equal opportunity and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religious creed, national origin, or gender. Priority is given to children of alumni, siblings, past parental support of Catholic schools, and families of the Catholic faith.
